

Arizona Board of Behavioral Health Examiners

Consent for Treatment

Cheat Sheet

Provide treatment to a client only in the context of a professional relationship based on informed consent for treatment.

Obtain a dated and signed informed consent for treatment from a client or legal representative before:
Providing treatment and when a change occurs that might affect consent
Audio or video taping the client or permitting a third party to observe treatment provided to the client

Include a dated signature from an authorized representative of the behavioral health entity.

- 602-542-1882
- azbbheinfo@azbbhe.us
- www.azbbhe.us

Document in writing the following elements of informed consent for treatment:

Purpose of Treatment.

General procedures used in treatment, including benefits, limitations, and potential risks.

Right to have records and information kept confidential with limitations.

Notice supervision or involvement with treatment team of professional.

Methods to obtain information about client's records.

Right to participate in treatment decisions and development and review and revision of treatment plan.

Right to refuse recommended treatment or withdraw consent to treatment and advised of consequences of refusal or withdrawal.

Right to be informed of all fees required to pay and refund and collection policies and procedures.